Numerous churches from around the South West Region were represented at today's Super Charge Conference, which is also the last one to be led by District Superintendent Rini Hernandez. Several excellent presentations were made during the morning.

The administrative matters were handled just before the end of the conference. Four items which appeared in the Gulf Cove UMC portion of the program were addressed and voted on, each receiving unanimous approval:

- Removal of members identified in the Second-Year list. (We no longer use a third-year list as mentioned in the program.)
- Pastor's compensation package.
- Leadership Positions as identified on three pages of the program.
- Renewal of continuing ministry candidate Shirley Smith.

The conference was concluded with Holy Communion.

Respectfully submitted,
Dana Hanson
